BALDINI (Baccio).

56 — EL LIBRO INTITULATO MONTE SANCTO DI DIO,
by Antonio Bettini, printed at Florence by Nicolo di Magna, 1477

a fine and perfect copy of this extremely rare book, so interesting in its connection with the early history of the art of Engraving. The prints, by Baldini, are in beautiful condition, being impressions taken before the plates were at all worn. The title-page and the initial letters are illuminated by a contemporary limner. "Volume très rare, et recherché parce qu'il est le premier livre connu où l'on trouve des planches en taille-douce."—Brunet Manuel du Libraire.

Ottley, vol. I, p. 374, et seq. gives a full and detailed account of this remarkable book, which is so rare that it has seldom if ever occurred in a public sale. It contains three prints, two of which are nearly the full size of the page, $9\frac{1}{2}$ inches high by 7 inches wide.

- I. The first represents a steep and rocky mountain, on the summit of which is the figure of Christ in Glory, surrounded by cherubs. From the middle of the print, at bottom, a ladder rises to the top of the mount, which a good friar is represented as beginning to ascend. The steps of the ladder are named after the Christian virtues. On the right is a figure of Christ on the Cross, and on the left is the figure of a young man, richly dressed, looking towards Heaven, and exclaiming, "LEVAVI OCULOS MEOS I MONTES," &c.
- II. The second represents a majestic figure of Christ standing in a glory of flames, and surrounded by angels and cherubs, $10\frac{1}{4}$ inches by 7 inches.
- III. The third is a representation of HELL, and is smaller than the other two, being $6\frac{1}{2}$ inches in width by $4\frac{3}{4}$ in height. In the centre is the figure of Lucifer, surrounded by the damned, who suffer various punishments.

the book is in perfect condition, and bound in old French morocco

IMPRESSIONS OF WORKS IN NIELLO.

- 1434 — PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG LADY IN PROFILE, TURNED TO THE RIGHT; her hair is arranged in three circular divisions, and she wears a rich necklace with pendant, and a close dress, flowers and foliage half way up on each side; near the left edge of the plate are two holes for fixing the same following
- this exquisite specimen, probably executed by F. Francia, is from the Collections of Mr. Wilson (No. 37), and Dr. Wellesley* 1
- 1435 — JUDITH HOLDING THE HEAD OF HOLOFERNES IN HER RIGHT HAND, and a drawn sword in her left; she is turned three-quarters to the right Do
- this exquisite specimen is in the grand style of Leonardo da Vinci, and in the finest state, undescribed by Duchesne; from Mr. Wilson's (No. 25) and Dr. Wellesley's Collections* 1
- 1436 — A MAN IN A DUCAL CAP, standing; he is dressed in a close habit, with an ornament like a chevron in front, and wears sandals; he is turned towards the right, but looks to the left, and is in the act of drawing his sword; on his right arm he carries a large shield; on each side is a rock, and above two holes for fixing the plate (B. 1436)
- undescribed by Duchesne; from Mr. Wilson's (No. 33) and Dr. Wellesley's Collections* 1
- 1437 — A WOMAN WALKING to the right, and leading by the hand a little boy with bare legs, holding in his right hand a cornucopia; in the front of her gown, which she raises with her left hand, are ears of corn or flowers; the upper part is filled with arabesque foliage, and two holes for nail-heads (Do)
- this beautiful niello is of the grandest style; from Mr. Wilson's (No. 32) and Dr. Wellesley's Collections, and previously undescribed* 1

very fine and entire with margin; Bartsch, xiii, p. 210. n. 9, describes an impression of which he supposes the part cut off might have contained the mark of Pellegrini 1

Hollway 1439 — THE RESURRECTION; below in the inscription OPVS. PEREGRINI. with DE. added on the left, and CES^s on the right, supposed to mean De Cesis or De Cesaribus. Of this print Zani (Enc. Met. ix. p. 2, 37) mentions a first impression with the inscription OPVS. PEREGRIN. only, but does not state where he saw it. The second he describes as being in the Durazzo Collection, with three other nielli by the same artist, though it is not mentioned by Bartsch among the copies of nielli in that cabinet. Another impression is in the Bibliothèque at Paris, in a finished state as to the background, which is not so much worked upon in the one just described, but the inscription is the same in both. This niello, important from its size and the name of the artist, is given in facsimile by M. Duchesne (No. 122), who describes Sir M. Sykes's impression as a first state. The present specimen belonged to Mr. Wilson's Collection (No. 39) and is from the Storek and Sykes Collections (No. 1115), and also from Dr. Wellesley's 1

fine rich impression, with margin 1

- 1515 , 1441 — ORPHEUS, PLAYING ON THE GUITAR, and seated in the middle of the composition against a leafless tree, among the branches of which many birds are assembled, while at his feet are crouched a variety of animals: at the bottom of the first is a margin of some breadth bearing the letters -O-Φ-D-C- in the centre, which signify Opera Peregrini da Cesena. Bartsch xiii. p. 208, No. 6. Duchesne, No. 255

fine rich impression in blue ink; from the Sykes and Wellesley Collections

- 1515 , 1442 — PORTRAIT OF A YOUNG LADY, down to the waist, three-quarters, turned to the right; her hair parted on her forehead, a pearl necklace and pendant, the pattern of her sleeve lozenged, with the elbow slashed; the back-ground is filled by a sprig on each side, and massive festoons of fruit and leaves above; in the upper margin is the letter p. for Pellegrini

fine and undescribed

- 1517 , 1444 — THE RESURRECTION OF CHRIST. A composition of a pyramidal form, in the middle of which is represented the open tomb with the Redeemer rising, with his banner in one hand, and giving the benediction with the other; two sleeping soldiers crouch in the angles, one on each side

- Q* 1570 — ADAM AND EVE, EATING THE FORBIDDEN FRUIT (1). 86 .
- "One of Marc Antonio's most exquisite productions;
"engraved from a design of Raffaele, who probably "assisted him in some parts of the outline, especially "in the figure of Eve."—(Ottley, v. 2, p. 785). 1
-  The present impression of this rare and beautiful print is believed to be almost unique, having been printed in a very early state of the plate. Much work was subsequently added in various parts, and this is especially remarked in the outlines of the figures. Upon comparison with the second state, these outlines will be found to be much harder and heavier in the latter than in the print before us; and a slip of the graver will also be observed, in the former, to run from the thigh of Adam, which cannot be found in the latter. This is the principal difference; but, on a careful inspection, similar changes appear all over the plate. Although light and delicate in outline, this impression is very rich and full of bur in the shadows.
